SALEM PUBLIC LIBRARY CODE OF CONDUCT

Administrative Rule No. 101-01 Salem Public Library Code of Conduct

Adopted: 8/31/2015
Revised: 11/13/2017

Introduction:

The Salem Public Library (Library) welcomes all residents and visitors and is dedicated to free and equal access to information, knowledge, independent learning, and the joys of reading for our diverse community.

The Library seeks to provide its users with a safe and pleasant library experience in an atmosphere conducive to studying, reading, learning and appropriate use of materials and services. The Library recognizes its unique position and responsibility to educate, inform, and enlighten the community through the sharing of a vast collection of resources that enable all to participate fully in our democratic society as members of a knowledgeable and educated citizenry.

Practice:

With public service being its highest priority, the Library has established certain rules and regulations governing its use, such that all persons may enjoy the benefits of the Library. All Library staff are authorized and expected to enforce these rules and regulations and may intervene to stop prohibited activities or behaviors. Library staff is authorized to issue exclusion notices to individuals violating this Code of Conduct. Individuals visiting the Library or using its facilities or services must comply with this Code of Conduct.

Individuals who interfere with Library staff in the performance of their duties or who fail to follow any instructions by a staff member to correct prohibited behavior will be subject to exclusion from Library property. Individuals refusing to leave after receiving a notice of exclusion will be subject to arrest and prosecution for trespassing pursuant Salem Revised Code (SRC) 95.550.

This Code of Conduct incorporates exclusion periods and other consequences that may be imposed by the Library but does not preclude or supersede other consequences or penalties that may be imposed by federal, state, or local law. Illegal activity, as well as willful or repeated violations of this Code of Conduct or other posted Library regulations (i.e. Acceptable Use of the Internet), may result in removal from the facility and/or suspension of Library privileges. In addition, where authorized by Federal, State or local law, violations of this Code of Conduct may also result in arrest. Repeat violations will result in longer periods of exclusion. Library users who wish to request a reasonable modification of this Code of Conduct due to a disability or health problem may contact Library staff or may call the Library Administration office at 503-588-6071.
